Mick O'Shea's Irish Pub

Would you believe a touch of country Ireland is only a 30 minute drive south of the Adelaide CBD? Mick O'Shea's Irish Pub is nestled in the gently rolling hills of the Southern Vales, gateway to the world renowned wine district of McLaren Vale.

Originally opened in November 1985 as James Craig Inn, an old tudor inn, it was later transformed into Mick O'Shea's Irish Pub, bringing a little bit of Irish to the south. Since its refurbishment in May 2001, Mick O'Shea's has become an icon in the south, not only for its Irish themed exterior, but as a haven for the rapidly growing community south of Adelaide.

From the moment you walk into Mick O'Sheas you'll be immersed in the cosy atmosphere of a traditional Irish pub where you can enjoy great food, leading premium drink products, great music and live entertainment along with professional staff to help cater for your every need.

Mick O'Shea's Irish theme, lively atmosphere and picturesque surroundings make it the perfect venue for all occasions. Dine outdoors in our pavilion enjoying the surroundings complete with hedgerows, rose garden and railway cart, join us inside where we can cater for you in our a-la-carte restaurant or try your luck in the "Luck of the Irish" gaming lounge. We also offer accommodation so why not stay the night in one of our cosy motel rooms, three of which feature full spa facilities.

And all this is just 30 minutes from the heart of Adelaide and 10 minutes from the McLaren Vale wine region.
